When anything has been spilled on the stove, or milk has boiled over and a suffocating smoke rises, sprinkle the spot with salt, and it will quickly disappear.

A little powdered borax added to cold starch tends to give the linen extra stiffness, and a little turpentine put into the boiled starch adds luster.

On April 1, 1896, there were one hundred and one missions on the roll of the Board. Three of these became self-sustaining on that date and three others have been added, so that the number is just the same. The sum of $38,000 was expended for the missions last year. The missions have made good progress during the year, and the outlook for the future is very bright, indeed. Never before were the missions so universally supplied with pastors. The General Synod authorized the apportionment of $45,000 on the synods for the English work alone, during the ensuing year. If this money is paid promptly the Board can greatly extend its operations.

The Hungarian work has been a success from the beginning. There are now six of these men at work among their brethren in this country, under the care of the Home Board. An additional field has lately been formed in Eastern Pennsylvania, and a missionary will soon arrive from Hungary to help in this grand work. The Board has been limited so far both in men and means, so that this work could not be extended as fully as it deserves.

Rev. Charles V. Molnar commenced work among the Bohemians of Chicago on July 15. He reports the outlook very hopeful. The Bohemians seem to be much interested in the Reformed movement, and the prospects now are favorable for the rapid upbuilding of a Reformed congregation among them.

For the combined Hungarian and Bohemian work the General Synod sets apart annually the sum of $6,000 for the three years coming. This will enable the Board to keep up the present Hungarian work and do a little additional. There is here opened to us as a church opportunities among the people of these two nationalities.

The Synod also designated $6,000 for additional work among the Germans in the large cities, by the General Board. This is a much needed work and should claim the attention of the church.

The Harbor Mission at New York continues to do good work and is a blessing to the immigrants.

Look not mournfully into the Past. It comes not back again. Wisely improve the Present. It is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy Future without fear, and with a manly heart.

A velvet garment should always be made up so that the nap inclines upward. If done in this way, it will not shade white and look shiny. Velvet that has become crushed or matted may be raised by drawing the wrong side across an upturned hot flatiron covered with a wet cloth, or by holding the goods right side up over the steam from a kettle of boiling water.

Sleeping in a narrow, hard bed is now considered conducive to a good figure; throw away your soft mattresses and even your pillows, and you are promised freedom from round shoulders and double chins. Many women are giving the experiment a trial.

The Church Extension Work.

HE Board feels the need of more thorough extension work. It asked the General Synod for $100,000 to be raised within the next five years for this arm of the work. This was granted and efforts of the Board will be now to set in motion a movement to gather this sum of $100,000. No more important movement could take place. We are largely engaged in city work and to carry this forward we must have a larger extension fund. The Board challenges men of means in the church to endow funds of $500 each for this noble work. Let us hope that the church will respond liberally to this movement. Upon the whole, our missionary operations are in a very healthy condition. There is progress on all sides and the future looks hopeful.

In 1897 the church will celebrate the 150th anniversary of the missionary tours of Michael Schlatter in this country. His tours were confined to the eastern portions of the church, but their importance, in our history, demands that the whole church shall celebrate them in a becoming manner. General Synod at Dayton recommended the celebration of this anniversary, and furthermore, recommended that offerings be made in connection with its celebration for the extension cause, and that this $100,000 fund be named the "Michael Schlatter Memorial Fund."

This is certainly a very appropriate name for this very important fund. Considering the great need of such a fund; the worthiness of the great missionary in whose honor it is named; the endorsement it has received from the highest court in the church; all these things combined should awaken an interest in the church and create an enthusiasm in its favor which should cause its accumulation in a comparatively short time. What we stated above with reference to persons, congregations and charges giving $500, and that the funds are to be that sum, was in explanation of the general plan of memorial and other funds, but, by this we do not mean, that smaller sums will not be received. The Board wishes a general offering from all parts of the church for this work, and all funds so received will be put into $500 funds to be given to the missions under the general plan adopted by the Board.

A BEGINNING.

We are glad to say that the action, constituting this $100,000 fund had scarcely been taken by the General Synod when there were several responses to the action. These are the first fruits, a kind of a foretaste of what may be expected when once the plans are matured for the raising of the fund. Soon after the adjournment of synod a good brother down in Pennsylvania sent us a draft for $100, to aid in this good work, and we know of others who are preparing to make their offerings.

The Reign of Winter.

BY OPEN EYES.

Out of the Northland, bleak and cold, Out of the realms of ice and snow, The Winter king is here again, By what we see, we plainly know.

The hills and woods and broad highways,
With fleecy drifts are covered o'er;
The lakes and rivers, streams and ponds
Are firmly bridged from shore to shore.

King Winter reigns throughout the land;
A grim but rather jolly king;
We'll own his sway without complaint,
Till from the Southland comes the Spring.

Church Extension Funds.

HE work of church extension has made very commendable progress during the last ten years in the gradual accumulation of funds for this purpose. What has been done is only an indication of what can be done, and we believe the church is now ready for a forward move. The call is loud and strong, and the cities of the West especially are centers of work in which the Reformed Church should be largely represented. See what has been done and consider well what should at once be done.

The following are the sums controlled by the different Boards:

General Board$	50,105.26
Bi-Synodic Board	36,700.00

The Secret of Health.

Don't worry.

Don't hurry. "Too swift arrives as tardy as too slow."

"Simplify!" "simplify!" "simplify!"

Don't overeat. Don't starve. "Let your moderation be known to all men."

Court the fresh air day and night. "Oh, if you knew what was in the air."

Sleep and rest abundantly. Sleep is nature's benediction.

Spend less nervous energy each day than you make.

Be cheerful. "A light heart lives long."

Think only healthful thoughts. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so he is."

"Seek peace and pursue it."

"Work like a man, but don't be worked to death."

Avoid passion and excitement. A moment's anger may be fatal.

Associate with healthy people. Health is contagious as well as disease.

"Don't carry the whole world on your shoulders, far less the universe. Trust the eternal."

Never despair. "Lost hope is a fatal disease."
"If you know these things, happy are ye if ye do them."—The Laws of Life.

REV. J. C. HORNING, Sunday-school Missionary of the Reformed Church in the United States.

The Work of the Sunday-school Missionary.

O UNDAY-SCHOOL mission work is the plan of mission operation adopted by our Home Board in co-operation with the Sunday-school Board.

I. The object of this work is to organize Sunday-schools in localities of our country destitute of or inadequately supplied with Christian privileges. From its nature and by definite aim and intention it is to be the pioneer of Home Missions, preparing the way for the preaching of the Word and the establishment of churches. The success of a mission Sunday-school marks the locality where a church may be judiciously organized. While it is our purpose to establish a church-home for members of our own denomination, yet following the mission idea we would broaden our concern for and labor among the unchurched masses of our land, especially of our cities in which "the Lord hath much people."

II. The method of work in pursuance of the object defined is, after having carefully determined the field of operation to make a systematic house-to-house canvass of the available territory, also to visit Reformed families and with their co-operation branch out from them as centers of outreach. Home visitation for the purpose of soliciting the attendance of non-attendants of church and Sunday-school brings into action the most potent factor in missionary efforts, personal contact with and personal labor among men.

III. The field of work is wherever there is need of Christian privileges, which need is "writ" large in our centers of population, and which centers have hitherto not received proportionate attention from our church. The work of the regular Sunday-school missionary has been mainly in the cities of Springfield and Columbus, O., in both of which flourishing schools and prosperous congregations have been organized, over which missionary pastors have been appointed by the Home Board. The congregations at New Kensington, Pa., at Youngstown and Warren. O., are the first fruits of this work, having been organized before it was taken up as the co-operative plan of the two Boards. A number of other schools have been organized by students under the direction of the Sunday-school Board.

It is a method of mission work which the Reformed Church is the fourth denomination and fifth organization to adopt as the most economical means and most practicable method, yielding the greatest return. "It stands now to the church as the light armed infantry or cavalry regiment stands to the regular army," the most available means, moving with the greatest speed at the least possible expense.

The funds for the maintainance of the Sunday-school mission work are derived from the annual offerings of schools on "Children's Day" and the offerings for Home Missions. The inauguration of this work is further facilitated by six months grant's of all Sunday-school supplies by the publication house of the church.

If I Knew.

If I knew the box where the smiles were kept, No matter how large the key Or strong the bolt, I would try so hard, 'Twould open, I know, for me. Then over the land and the sea, broadcast, I'd scatter the smiles to play, That the children's faces might hold them fast For many and many a day.

All dried fruits should be soaked over night before cooking. They can be washed much cleaner, and are much softer, fresher, and nicer in every way.

The General Sunday-school Work.

HE Sunday-school Board of the General Synod has under its supervision and management the general Sunday-school work of the Reformed Church.

For the last years this has been vigorously prosecuted under the direction of Rev. Rufus W. Miller, General Secretary. The General Synod at its meeting, Dayton, Ohio, unanimously approved the report and recommendations of the Board.

The work is carried forward under four departments: Statistics, Missionary and Sundayschool Work, Instruction and Publication.

Great progress has been made. The gain in Sunday-school membership for the last three years has been over thirty thousand.

The Board has aided in the organization of some fifty schools.

Rev. J. C. Horning is employed as the permanent Sunday-school Missionary. He has been successful in establishing a number of schools, which have grown into regular congregations, as at New Kensington, Pa., Youngstown, Columbus, Springfield, O.

This missionary work is supported by the Children's Day offerings of Sunday-schools.

The Board now prepares and publishes all our Reformed lesson helps and Sunday-school papers. Improvements are already noticeable. For the first time in the history of the church the Sunday-school publications are owned and controlled by the church. Let every Reformed school remember they are your publications. Circulate them in your school.

The profits of publication go entirely to the advancement of the work.

For the year 1897, the General Secretary proposes as the Watchword, "More Bible students, better Sunday-schools, every child a scholar, every scholar a Christian." Carry this out in the spirit of our Sunday-school motto, and join in the united movement for a larger Sunday-school membership.

The officers and members of the Board are: Rev. Conrad Clever, D. D., President, Baltimore, Md., Rev. Charles F. Kriete, Vice-President, Louisville, Ky., Rev. Rufus W. Miller, General Secretary, Reading, Pa., Rev. David B. Lady, D. D., Recording Secretary, Greenville, Pa., Rev. John H. Bomberger, Treasurer, Columbiana, O., Rev. C. S. Gerhard, D. D., Rev. A. E. Baichly, Rev. F. Strassner, Rev. A. E. Dahlman, Rev. David H. Fouse, Rev. Lewis Robb.

Love One Another.

It was Saturday night, and two children small Sat on the stairs in the lighted hall Vexed and troubled and sore perplexed, To learn for Sunday the forgotten text, Only three words on a gilded card, Both the children declared it hard.

"'Love,' that is easy—it means, why this"— (A warm embrace and a loving kiss);
"But 'one another,' I don't see who Is meant by 'another,'—now, May, do you?"

Very grandly she raised her little head,
Our thoughtful darling, and slowly said,
As she fondly smiled on the little brother:
"Why, I am one, and you are another.
And this is the meaning—don't you see?—
That I must love you, and you must love me."

Wise little preacher, could any sage Interpret better the sacred page?

Stain or paint an outside border around the floors of all sleeping and living apartments, and not allow a carpet to reach within eight inches of the baseboard. Five minutes' daily used of a sweeper in such a room will effectually prevent an unhealthy accumulation of dust.

Meats never allowed to boil will be more tender than those that cook hard. Tough meats become tender by proper cooking, while the reverse of this is equally true. Hard boiling in salted water will toughen the best piece of meat ever sold.

REV. JOSEPH HENRY DUBBS, D. D.

REV. JOSEPH HENRY DUBBS, D. D., was born at North White Hall, Pa., October 5, 1838; son of Rev. Joseph S. Dubbs, D. D., for upwards of thirty years pastor of Zion's Reformed Church, Allentown, Pa.

Graduated at Franklin and Marshall College, 1856; Theological Seminary, 1859. Became pastor of Zion's Church, Allentown, 1859; Trinity Church, Pottstown, 1863; Christ's Church, Philadelphia, 1871. In 1875 he was elected Audenried Professor of History and Archæology in Franklin and Marshall College, which position he still occupies. Editor of The Guardian, 1882-'86; chief editorial correspondent of The Messenger, 1894-'95. Received the degree of D. D., from Ursinus College, 1878. In 1872 he was elected an honorary member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania; in 1879 a corresponding member of the Ethnographic Society of France; and in 1885 a fellow of the Royal Historical Society of Great Britain. He is the author of "Historic Manual of the Reformed Church," 1885; "Home Ballads and Metrical Versions," 1888; "Why am I Reformed?" (anonymous) 1889, and of many minor publications. He contributed articles to the "Schaff-Herzog Encyclopædia," "Johnson's Universal Cyclopædia," and the American Supplement to the "Encyclopædia Brittanica."

Educational Institutions.

The Reformed Church believes in educational work and as a consequence has quite a number of literary and educational institutions. These had their beginning very early in the history of the Reformed Church in this country. The church laid great stress upon an educated ministry and at first young men were privately trained for their calling under the instruction of our ministers. This only increased the need of higher education and encouraged the founding of seminaries and colleges. It is a source of gratification that our church has given liberal support to these centers of education and around them are gathered the energies and agencies which have resulted in increased interest in the acquisition of a liberal and thorough education. Our colleges and seminaries stand side by side with the institutions of larger and more influential Christian denominations. Our grade of scholarship is of the highest rank, and our courses of study are thorough. Our representatives occupy almost every kind of a position in the gift of the people. The alumni of the various institutions are scattered from ocean to ocean and from the lakes to the gulf. The church has done well in the endowment of so many colleges and seminaries, and yet there are unlimited opportunities for a larger growth and a more liberal support. None of these colleges and seminaries are as fully endowed as they ought to be. There are yet untold possibilities where the equipments are insufficient. What we need is more money to get the necessary teaching force and the best talent as well as the best equipments in apparatus. The present age demands far greater facilities than any other time. The new discoveries in science and philosophy, in history and art; and the new methods of teaching all demand new and better appliances to compete with the larger institutions of learning in this country.

A man, looking up from sawing wood, saw his little son turning two boys out of the yard. "What are you about, George?" asked the father. "I am turning two swearers out of this yard," said George. "I said that I would not play with swearers, and I won't." We wish that every boy would take the same stand, and turn the swearers out.

It is well known that rats can not resist sunflower seeds. A trap baited with these seeds is the most effective method of catching them.

A bran bag is one of the most grateful of all toilet accessories. It is more cleansing to the skin, and much more refreshing. It is made by filling a muslin bag with two quarts of bran, one ounce of orris root, one ounce almond meal and one small cake of castile soap cut in small pieces.

REV. J. S. STAHR, PH. D., D. D.

EV. JOHN S. STAHR, PH. D., D. D., was born in Bucks county, Pa., December 2, 1841. His parents were of German Reformed ancestry. Received his early education in the public schools of his native township. Before the age of sixteen, became teacher of the school in which he had been a pupil the year before. This position he held for seven successive years.

In 1858, entered the Bucks County Normal and Classical School, at Quakertown, Rev. A. R. Horne, D. D., principal. In 1864, when Rev. Lucian Cort succeeded Dr. Horne as principal, Dr. Stahr became an assistant teacher and prepared for college. Entered the junior class at Franklin and Marshall, 1865. Graduated, 1867. Intended to study theology at Mercersburg but was called to fill the vacancy in the college faculty caused by the resignation of Dr. Falk. Studied theology privately under Dr. John W. Nevin, whose warm interest and personal friendship were of the greatest account to him in his studies and subsequent career. Made adjunct professor in 1868. Licensed to preach by the Goshenhoppen Classis at Quakertown, 1869. Elected principal of the Keystone State Normal School, 1871, but declined the call. Elected in the same year to the chair of natural sciences and German in his alma mater. Ordained to the ministry at Reading, 1872, and became assistant pastor to Dr. Bausman. Became financial agent of the college, 1887. Elected president pro tem. of the college, 1889, and president, 1890. Received the degree of A. M., 1870; Ph. D., 1883; D. D. from Lafayette College in 1891. Member of the International Sundayschool Lesson Committee. Consulting member of the editorial staff of Funk & Wagnall's Standard Dictionary. Translated Grob's "Life of Zwingli," and is a frequent contributor to church papers and the Reformed Quarterly Review.

Educational Centers.

The Reformed Church is more largely represented in the state of Pennsylvania than anywhere else and consequently her educational work had its beginning there as well as its largest institutions of learning. There are consequently several educational centers, and the one most widely known because of its age and influence is at Lancaster, Pa. Lancaster county is in itself a Reformed center for our church and naturally in its midst is located Franklin and Marshall College and Seminary. This institution has at its head an able and worthy president in the person of Rev. J. S. Stahr, D. D., in the literary department, and the venerable Rev. E. V. Gerhart, D. D., as President of the Theological Seminary. This educational institution has a large constituency and stands out prominently as the fountain-head of education in that section of the state. At Tiffin, Ohio, is another educational center for the church in Ohio and the western states. Heidelberg College having been organized and established in the forties and has also gathered about it a large constituency. This institution was the radiating center of education for the vast territory in the West and still retains this position, though there are other centers developing which in due time may become rivals in influence and power which we trust may be the case. Heidelberg College and Theological Seminary have been very liberally supported and yet there is room for a more complete endowment. There is no demand greater than to make the semi-centennial celebration memorable by raising the $100,000 which the worthy financial secretary is so earnestly pre-Continued on page 19.

Canned Grapes.—Cover the bottom of a glass can with grapes. Add a layer of sugar and alternate layers of fruit and sugar until the jar is filled. Seal, and the work is done. In a few weeks the juice of the grapes will have dissolved the sugar, and then they will be covered with a rich red syrup. Grapes canned in this way will keep for years; but, as after a few months they will be principally juice, they are best to eat in two or three months.

One night we were sitting out of doors in the moonlight, unusually silent—almost sad. Suddenly someone—a poetic looking man, with a gentle, lovely face—said in a low tone:—"Did you ever think of the beautiful lesson the stars teach us?" We gave a vague, appreciative murmur, but some soulless clod said:—
"No, what is it?" How to wink," he answered, in a sad, sweet voice.

senting to our people. Rev. J. A. Peters, D. D., presides over the Literary Department and Rev. D. Van Horne, D. D., is President of the Theological Seminary. Another educational center is at Collegeville, Pa., where Ursinus College and Seminary are located. This institution is in the hands of good men who are pushing its claims and interests. It is growing in influence and popularity and has also finished the various professions of some strong men. It is deserving of greater encouragement and has been very liberally remembered in recent years. Rev. H. T. Spangler, D. D., is the President of the Literary Department.

At Franklin, Wis., is a German center of education, for here is located the Mission House with its college and seminary. It is doing a wonderful work among the Germans and has sent out some of the most able ministers of the German part of our church.

Then in the South we have a very important educational center in Catawba College, Newton, N. C. This institution is ably managed by Rev. J. C. Clapp, D. D. It has labored under greater disadvantages than any other because of the limited support, but it is doing a grand work for our church in the South and well deserves greater financial help.

Along the shores of Lake Erie is the beautiful Forest City of Cleveland, with its busy throng of human beings and its push and energy in business circles. Here, too, the Reformed Church has an educational center of no small importance and one which finds its strength in Calvin College. True, this institution cannot boast of great things in the way of endowment, but it can boast of work well done, being the German-English School at the head of which is the venerable Dr. J. H. Ruetenik. He has done and is doing a good work in training young men for the gospel ministry in both languages.

And another educational center is at Mercersburg, Pa., where we have Mercersburg College under the able management of Rev. Wm. M. Irvine, Ph. D. This institution is at present conducted as a high grade academy for boys under the care of the Potomac Synod. The equipment of the school has of late years been much improved. The large attendance made Continued on page 21.

Meteorologists are now giving special attention to the measurement of the heights and velocities of clouds. The determinations are made with an instrument called the photogrammeter. This is a theodolite provided with a small telescope and a camera. Several photographs of the cloud are made from different stations at the same instant, and a second set of photographs are made a few minutes later. From these photographs the height and velocity of the cloud are computed. In this way the mean heights of the various kinds of clouds have been found to be about as follows. Stratus one mile, strato: cumulus one and three-tenths miles, cumulus one and seven-tenths miles, alto-cumulus two and one-half miles, cirro-cumulus four miles, cirrus six miles.

Both are doing a good work and will tell on our church as years pass on. At these different institutions of learning our young men and women can all get a liberal education and thus the Reformed Church occupies no inconsiderate position so far as the educational advantages are concerned. With special pride do we look at these centers of intelligence and pray that their influence for good may yet be extended and increased.

The sinews of goodness are courage, moral and physical,—a fact which places all really good men and women beyond the reach of ridicule, and above the high-water mark of contempt.

September.

We are drinking the wine of the ages,
From cups that are brimming over
With the sweet of a honey unbought with money,
Distilled from the heart of the clover.

The flowers afringe on the wayside
Are in raiment of purple and gold;
To the rough-hewn edge of the old stone ledge
The clinging brier-vines hold.

We are breaking life's fine elixir
In the waft of the perfumed breeze,
The sudden showers, the sunlit hours,
The rustle of leaves on the trees.

The fathomless blue of the heaven,
The beauty and bloom of the day,
Are making us young, they are waking the tongue
Of the years that have passed away.

Tis the radiant rare September,
With the clusters ripe on the vine,
With scents that mingle in spicy tingle
On the hill slope's glimmering line.

And summer's a step behind us,
And autumn's a thought before,
And each fleet sweet day that we meet on the way
Is an angel at the door.

It was a saying of socrates, that every man had need of a faithful friend and a bitter enemy—the one to advise, the other to show his faults.

The Heidelberg Catechism.

There was a time in the history of Protestantism when it was imperative to have a symbol of faith in which the church defined its doctrinal position and standing as over against the teaching of Roman Catholicism. It was important because during the Reformation no pains were spared to indoctrinate the children of the Roman Catholic Church in the doctrines and teachings, customs and practices of the church. Thus they tried to maintain their faith and uphold the corrupt doctrines and practices which prevailed at that time. It was a matter of life or death to the church and hence the children were early instructed so they could not be turned against the interests of the church. The secret of self-preservation was to keep the hearts of the children, and as they were restricted in their privileges and kept in subjection to the will of the church they were naturally forced to their religious preference for Catholicism. To meet the opposition to the Reformation it was necessary for the Protestant churches also to educate and train the children. Parochial schools were formed and the children of the church gathered into them, and here they were taught not only in the common school studies but also in the Bible. It became necessary for Protestantism to make a clear statement of its teachngs, and hence the catechisms were produced in which the principal doctrines of the Bible were explained and simplified for the benefit of the children. How else could they maintain the church. It was, therefore, a matter of deep significance to educate and train Protestant children in the duties of their religion. For further argument we refer to Dr. Russell's Creed and Customs where he speaks of this subject.

"But the intrinsic value and real greatness of the catechism, is to be referred rather, to the crying needs of the times which it met, and for which it so largely made substantial provision. Its measure of excellence is to be found in the divine over-ruling of its authors and its contents, both as to its outward form, and also, as to its inward power, to satisfy the historical wants, not only of that particular age and country, but of other ages and other lands, where the Reformed spirit is found. This divinely governed historical element reigning in the catechism, is its source of truth and power of life, from first to last.

OCCASION AND CALL FOR THE CATECHISM.

In the year A. D. 1559, the government of the Palatinate came into the possession of Prince Frederick the Third, whose rank among the electors was next to that of the Emperor himself. He found in his dominions, a greatly troubled people, deeply harassed by the conflicting interests into which the Reformation had been divided, in the days of his predecessors.

Around the celebrated University at Heidelberg, many scholars had gathered, and opposing parties aimed at controlling, through it and the court, the public opinion of the province. The most scandalous contentions and strifes are said to have abounded, to the hearty disgust of many moderate and peaceloving people. The earnest spirit of the pious Prince, was greatly outraged by these disorderly occasions of discord and violence; and he felt it to be his duty, as a ruler entrusted with the well being of his people, to remove the general ground and cause of these troubles.

He found it necessary, to this end, to first admonish, and then dismiss and banish from the University, the leading spirits of discord and contention. And to heal the disharmony, he then proposed a more moderate formula, for the doctrine of the Lord's Supper; which should do honor to Melancthon's later views, as set forth in the altered form of the Augsburg Confession, and to which it was desired, the Palatinate should adhere. In this sense only, can the Palatinate be said to have hitherto been Lutheran.

Frederick the Wise, and Otho Henry, of its former rulers, it is true, were Lutherans; but only in the broad sense of the modified views of the Author and Defender of the Augsburg Confession. And with the people, the more ultra Lutheran party, it is said, were never popular. If the new order approved by Melancthon, and now introduced, had been allowed peaceably to prevail, there would, most probably, have been no such absolute call, as there was, in fact, for the formation of another confession, defining this in its last and best results, as combined in a free and living way, with the other and later fruits of the Reformation.

"That was an awful mistake Madge made at the Twiggs' reception." "What was it!" She sat and talked for twenty minutes to a cluster of chrysanthemums, thinking it was one of the guests."

PROF. A. D. KELLER.

ROF. ALBERT D. KELLER is a native of Crawford county, O. A part of the time previous to his college life, was spent on the farm and a part in the town of Sulphur Springs. After attending the schools at his home in the country and in town, he taught for three years, including the high school of Sulphur Springs. In September, 1888, he began his studies with the senior preparatory class in Heidelberg University, Tiffin, O., and graduated as a classical student in 1893. Then he spent two years in post-graduate studies at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., taking the degree of Master of Arts at that institution in June '95. After this he gave another year to graduate work at the University of Chicago. In June, '96, at its annual meeting, the Alumni Association of Heidelberg University chose Mr. Keller for the Alumni Professorship of "English Language and Literature, History and Economics." He was immediately recommended to the Board of Regents, which body unanimously elected him to the above professorship. He accepted of the position and entered upon his work in September of the year 1896. Mr. Keller is doubtless well qualified for the very responsible and honorable position to which he has been called, having been a close student during his college course, and in addition devoting more time to purely post-graduate work than likely any graduate of Heidelberg up to this time has done.

There is one way in which the Christmas spirit should show its power. It should reveal itself in our personal lives. What Christ is to us, we ought, in our little human measure, to be to others. Christmas means love. Christ came to our world to pour divine kindness on weary, needy, perishing human lives. The Christian spirit truly in our hearts should send us out on the same mission. There is need everywhere for love's ministry. Hearts are breaking with sorrow, men are bowing under burdens too heavy for them, duty is too large, the battles are too hard. One of the saddest things about life is that, with so much power to help others by kindliness of word and kindliness of act, many of us pass through the world in silence or with folded hands.

Joy Bells of Christmas.

MRS. R. ADDIE STAIR.

Joy bells of Christmas, ring out the glad tidings, Glad tidings of love that a Savior is born; Let the hills and the mountains re-echo and echo, From sunset at eve, till the flush of the morn.

Ring out to the listening ears of the weary, Weary of toiling in the treadmill of life; Weary of weeping, of praying, of sighing, Weary of battling with envy and strife.

Ring out with joy to the snow-haired father,
Telling him soon in bright glory he'll see,
Him who was born in Bethlehem's manger,
Who came for us to die, those in bondage to free.

Oh! let the chime of the deep sounding metal,
Resound and resound through the domes of the sky,
Jesus is come, Oh! waft the glad tidings!
Let all the people now hear the glad cry.

Ring out joyously from cathedrals' arches,
That there's a mediator between man and God;
That the way once so rough with brambles and briars,
May be made just as a nooth as grass covered sod.

Look, tired one, to the star shining brightly,
That pointeth straight to your Savior and mine,
Its dazzling splendor doth shine on us nightly,
Telling us ever of love that's divine.

Ring the glad news to those weary of sinning, Weary of traveling the broad highway, Weary of serving the caprice of mammon, Weary of throwing their "soul's wealth" away.

Joy bells of Christmas, tell us the glad tidings,
That some one has come from the highway of sin,
Have shut out the darkness of lost hopes' shadow;
And opened their hearts for the Christ to come in.

PROF. H. L. BEAM, A. M., President of College of Northern Illinois, Dakota, Illinois.

The College of Northern Illinois.

HIS college is located at Dakota, Ill., and is more directly the institution of Shelby Classis. It has already done much toward educating the young people in its vicinity, affording them privileges of a higher education than they can secure at the public schools. Prof. Beam has the full management of it and has given his best energies to its work. What this institution needs is a larger endowment that it may do more efficient work. They are limited in teaching force as well as apparatus, and those who can best do it ought to place it upon a firm financial basis. It has a work if it can be maintained and strengthened.

The Orphan Cause

The Reformed Church has a special pride in carrying out the spirit of Christ toward the orphans. There is no grander work in the church than that which finds its blessing in the provision for our orphan children. The church institutions are established on a broader and better foundation than our state and county homes. In these we find Christian influences, a Christian home life, a family life, which will at once instill itself into the very life and character of the child. The Christian orphanages are by far better adapted to the education and training of the children than any county or state home, and our church may well be proud of the work she is doing in this respect. We have three homes, all of which are well equipped for the work, and over these homes are placed the most competent superintendents and instructors. The church has abundantly provided for her orphan children in these homes, one being located in the extreme eastern portion of our church, the other in the central and the other the western. Thus all sections of our church are being touched, and the children are not so far from their native birth places, and thus the children can often go to their friends and relatives as a vacation trip. In every home there is the family idea. These children are there as they would be in a large family. They have a head to whom they can go and pour out their hearts and make known their sorrows and get sympathy in their little troubles. It always moves us to tears to visit these homes and hear the children address the superintendent and wife as papa and mamma, or father and mother. These words sink very deep into the heart and especially so where we know that they were old enough to remember their own dear parents. Nowhere in our church can our benevolences and offerings bring more sunshine than to support these homes. We do realize that here we may see the fruits of our giving in the lives that open up and are filled for the active duties of life. Remember these homes and especially at Christmas time. Send them your gifts and make them happy. Do not forget that Rev. T. Y. Yundt is the superintendent at Womelsdorf. Pa., Rev. P. C. Prugh, D. D., at Butler, Pa., and Rev. John Rettig, at Ft. Wayne, Ind. These will all rejoice to receive gifts to gladden the hearts of the little ones in their care. Remember that Christ said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

"Jamie," called out his mother, sharply, "you've been loafing all day. Satan always finds some work for idle hands to do. Take this basket and bring in some kindlings."

REV. H. S. GEKELER, Editor of Reformed Church Herald, St. Joseph, Missouri.

EV. H. S. GEKELER is very modest and has not furnished any data concerning himself, but one thing we know that he is an alumnus of Heidelberg College and Seminary, and spent a year in the East in special work, and has done a good work in St. Joseph, Mo., in carrying forward the work of the church. He is an energetic and indefatigable worker. He is the editor of the Reformed Church Herald, the official organ of the Synod of the Interior. With this as an agency and the earnest workers in the West our church should be assured of success. The Interior Synod covers a large territory and has an important mission to perform in establishing the interests of the Reformed Church in the great West.

Woman's Work in the Reformed Church.

In these closing years of the nineteenth century, the missionary spirit is not confined to the brethren, it has fired the tongues, the pens and the hearts of the women as well.

The first missionary societies of which we have any knowledge in the Reformed Church were "composed of females," according to the first annual report of the Board of Home Missions in 1827. These societies were organized in 1826, one at Frederick, Md., the other at Germantown, Pa., after the organization of the Board of Home Missions. But the little missionary flame kindled in the early part of the century, seems to have burned low, or died out.

We hear no more of mission work among the women until in May, 1869, at the meeting of Ohio Synod, which convened at Delaware, O., when Rev. S. B. Yockey made some public suggestions in regard to woman's mission work. About eight years after this, February 20, 1877, a local or congregational Woman's Missionary Society was organized in the First Reformed Church of Xenia, O., Mrs. S. B. Yockey, president.

The first Classical Woman's Missionary Society was organized, August 31, 1883, in Illinois Classis, Mary A. Meyer, president.

At the meeting of Pittsburg Synod in Kittanning, Pa., in 1883, it was resolved, by a committee of which Rev. C. R. Dieffenbacher was chairman, that the Board of Missions be directed to prepare a congregational and synodical form to aid in establishing Ladies' Missionary Societies, etc. We find that wherever the men have encouraged the women in mission work, there the work has prospered, and the societies have done most.

The first Synodical Missionary Society was organized in Pittsburg Synod, September 30, 1886, in the parlor of St. Paul's Orphan Home, Butler, Pa., Miss Jean Craig, of Pittsburg, president. During this meeting a motion prevailed that the officers of the society constitute a committee to attend the meeting of General Synod to be held at Akron in the spring of 1887, with with a view to the organization of a Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod. The Woman's Missionary Society of Miami Classis, organized in 1885, as well as Philadelphia and other classes, united in sending representatives to Akron.

The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod was organized in the parlors of Grace Reformed Church, Akron, O., June 2, 1887, Mrs. S. B. Yockey was elected president, Mrs. H. M. Herman and Mrs. J. M. Evans vice-presidents Mrs. A. K. Zartman recording secretary, Mrs. E. D. Wettach corresponding secretary, and

REV. A. ROTH,

Pastor of St. Peter's Reformed Church, Clay

City, Ind.

Mrs, I. N. Burger, Mrs. R. S. Dotterer and Mrs. R. Bell constituted the first executive committee.

Mrs. P. Keil, Miss Jean Craig and Miss Etta K. Prugh were appointed as a committee to prepare a constitution.

There are at this time, auxiliary to the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, five synodical societies, thirty classical societies and a large number of congregational societies, representing about 10,000 members. With the great Captain of their salvation as leader, no earthly power can check the steady growth of the seeds of truth and love and life which these women are sowing year by year.

The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, during the last three years, has given $17,000 to the Home and Foreign Mission Boards. Besides this they have bought the Woman's Journal and published and circulated about 75,000 copies of the same at a cost of about $3,000, plant and all. Since last October this society has also published the Mission Band Helper for the children of the church, and conducted a department in the Reformed Church Tidings. Also the initiative step has been taken towards placing missionary intelligence in the Saturday's edition of the secular press.

This society is supporting the Girls' School at Sendai, Japan, and is now planning to enlarge the teaching force of that school, by sending out a third lady teacher and missionary. There are at present fifty-seven pupils in this school, from which a number of young women have been graduated who are now doing missionary work as Bible women, and also teaching in Sunday-schools and establishing Christian homes in Japan, besides praying and giving and working for the cause of Christ.

The president of the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod is Mrs. H. M. Herman, of Miamisburg, O. Mrs. Herman is a niece of Rev. Robert W. Orr, one of the early missionaries to China, and a cousin of Dr. Hunter Corbett, a successful missionary in China. She has also other distant relatives in the foreign field.

The motto of the society is, "Out of darkness into light, through the blood of Christ;" their colors, black, gold and red.

This society was represented at the International Conference of Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies held in Glasgow, Scotland, June 24th and 25th, 1896, by Miss Elizabeth Barnhart, of Greensburg, Pa.

A most important feature of woman's mission work is the training of the children in Mission Bands. In this way the missionary spirit is implanted in the children of the church, and not only our own but future generations, will feel the effects of this good work.

The Almshouse One Cent; or the Poor Man's Mite.

On the 3d of October, 1893, the Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church in the United States found in his mail an enclosure, the only contents of which was a small envelope, on which was written, "FOR THE LORD," "Given by an inmate of the Montgomery County, Pa., Almshouse." On opening the small envelope we found one cent. In the absence of all information as to who was the giver, or by whom sent to us, a lively interest was awakened. Thoughts came to us: In this humble offering we seemed to see a veritable gospel mite; all that the giver possessed, and we looked upon it as a holy thing. The idea was suggested to us that it was a seed; that by planting it, with God's blessing upon the offering of the poor, t might grow into a tree whose fruit should be for the healing of the nations.

In faith the precious seed was planted. It was announced to the church, with the request that it be made to grow to at least sixty dollars, that for one year a candidate for the gospel ministry in our school of the prophets in Sendai, Japan, might be supported. But God's thoughts were higher than our thoughts. Responses were almost immediate, so that in a very few weeks the specified sum was exceeded, and the objective figure was advanced to an amount sufficient to support a student a full three years' course in the Theological Department.

ISAAC BRUCE.

From time to time, as the fund enlarged, the fact was announced in the church papers, specifying the figure reached. One of these announcements fell under the eye of the person who, anonymously, had sent the one cent to the secretary. It filled his soul with gladness, and he hastened to furnish the history of the fruitful mite.

He had been pursuing his educational course in an institution located a few miles from the Montgomery County Almshouse, and he, with some of his fellow-students, had been visiting this home of the poor, and conducting religious service for their benefit. On one occasion, when about to leave, as was his custom, he was giving the inmates a good-by hand-shake, when he came to the last one, a poor colored man, sadly afflicted with an incurable ailment, and extended his hand to him. Before taking it he gave him the one cent with the words, "Here is something for the Lord. It isn't much, but I feel that I ought to give something. I had a good bit better give it to the Lord than spend it for other things." For a number of months the receiver was greatly embarrassed to know how to dispose of this sacred trust, for such he regarded it. At length he concluded to send it to the Secretary of our Board.

At the time of receiving the cent Mr. A. Judson Walter, for that is the gentleman's name, did not know the name of the giver. Subsequently, about the last of December, 1894, he again visited the almshouse, and found the person still there. He ascertained that his name is Isaac Bruce, at that time in his 34th year. He told him of the growth of his humble gift. He listened with deep attention, and remarked: "Did de cent do all dat?" To which Mr. Waler replied, "No, the cent didn't do it all, but with the blessing of God it started a train of circumstances that have brought about this great result." Before leaving the poor fellow handed Mr. Walter a nickel to be added to the growing fund. Our latest information reports him still living. It is but a few weeks ago that the photograph was taken from which the cut of him on page 31 was engraved.

After the beginning of the year 1895 the fund continued to grow by frequent contributions, large and small, and we were looking hopefully for the realization of the proposed $180 for a full three years' course in the Theological Department, when a large contribution, made by some devoted souls, placed the amount in hand considerably in excess of our figure. Then it was that the resolution was taken to strive to reach the sum of $1,000 for the endowment of a perpetual scholarship in our Tohoku Gakuin in Sendai, Japan. Nor was that resolution destined to failure. The announcement of this resolution seemed to touch the Christian sensibilities of our people, so as the result of a continuous inflow of gifts, the secretary was afforded the joyous privilege of reporting to the Executive Committee, at its meeting in September, 1895, that the $1,000 mark had been more than reached. and the perpetual scholarship was formally established.

Sixty dollars a year is the amount designated for the support of a student. The $1,000 would provide that income in the way of interest provided a safe investment at six per cent could be secured. But in view of the fact that first-class investments frequently yield but five per cent, the Executive Committee ordered that the fund should be held open to realize, if possible, $1,200, thus insuring the desired income. On December 26, 1895, the sum reached was $1,204.62. Shall the Almshouse One Cent Fund now cease to grow?

Thus has God honored and blessed the offering of the poor. Poor Isaac Bruce, when he gave that one cent "For the Lord" gave more in the eye of God, than many another who brought a princely gift to His altar. A succession of native ministers will go forth, in Japan, to preach Christ and Him crucified, in consequence of the divine blessing upon that one cent, and how many souls will be gathered into the fold of heavenly bliss, through their ministry, eternity alone will unfold.

We still have that same one cent. What shall we do with it?—Tract of Dr. S. N. Callender.

REV. D. B. SCHNEDER.

N the year 1887 in consequence of the removal of Rev. J. P. Moore to Yamagata, a furlough being granted to Rev. Gring to return to America (who during his furlough resigned his commission as missionary under our Board and retired permanently), together with the large growth of the training school requiring an increase of the teaching force, the Board felt itself under the necessity of sending out an additional missionary. Accordingly Rev. D. B. Schneder was appointed July 7, 1887, and reached Japan with his wife, who was Miss Anna M. Shoenberger, of Reading, Pa., on December 21, 1887. Rev. D. B. Schneder was born at Bowmansville, Lancaster county, Pa., March 23, 1857. He graduated in Franklin and Marshall College and the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa. He had several years' pastoral experience before going to Japan. He most efficiently occupies the chair of Dogmatic Theology in the Tohoku Gakuin. He is a man of profound thought and untiring industry. Having been granted a furlough they started from Sendai on August 17th, set sail from Yokohama on August 21, 1896, on the "Empress of China," reached Vancouver on September 2nd, and Reading on September 10th. Most of their time in this country will be spent in visiting churches in the interests of Foreign Missions.

Foreign Missions.

The Board of Foreign Missions consists of the following members; no changes having been made by the last General Synod: viz, Rev. J. I. Good, D. D., president, Rev. John H. Prugh, D. D., vice-president, Rev. S. N. Callender, D. D., secretary, Elder Jos. L. Lemberger, treasurer, Revs. A. R. Bartholomew, J. S. Kieffer, D. D., J. Dahlman, D. D., C. R. Dieffenbacher, D. D., P. Greding, D. D., Elders B. Kuhns, J. Y. Dietz and J. Z. Gerhard, M. D.

The executive committee consists of the officers of the Board together with Rev. A. R. Bartholomew and Elder J. Z. Gerhard, M. D.

The Board meets in regular session once a year, and in special meetings as called by the executive committee. The executive committee meets quarterly.

PROF. E. C. ZARTMAN,

Principal of Conservatory of Music at Heidelberg University.

C. ZARTMAN, B. M., professor of vocal and instrumental music, was born January 31, 1857, near Glenford, O. Spent two years in Dana's Musical Institute, Warren, O., from 1882-1884. Teacher of music in academy, Pleasantville, O., from 1884-1887; attended the Conservatory of Music at Wooster, O., and graduated from that Conservatory in June of 1887; from 1887-1889, director of music in Emporia College, Emporia, Kans.; 1889-1896, director of music in Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill. Since completing the musical course in the Conservatory of Music at Wooster, O., he has taken post-graduate courses under Signor De Cauepi, now of Chicago, a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Milan, Italy, and the leading teacher in this country of the Italian school singing; and at Philadelphia under such eminent musicians as Prof. Frederick Root, H. A. Clark, Chas. Landon, J. C. Fillmore, W. S. B. Matthews and Dr. Wm. Mason, now director of the Conservatory of Music in Heidelberg University, Tiffin, O.

God's way of forgiving is thorough and hearty, both to forgive and to forget. And if thine be not so thou hast no portion of his. Foreign Missions continued from page 33. has thus been enabled to about hold its own, with its list purged of unworthy members.

The sky is again clearing. The people are growing more thoughtful and earnest, and the outlook more assuring for solid Christian work. Our mission is addressing itself with renewed energy to the work God has given it to do. In the near future, instead of one central station at Sendai, we will have four principal stations. Besides Sendai, Tokyo, Yamagata and Sapporo, or some other point in the Hokkaido (the northern island) will be occupied as centers of operations. Thus more efficiently will we be enabled to work our largely growing field.

Our Christian schools continue in the vigorous and successful prosecution of their work. We have suffered less from the disturbing causes averted to, than others. Our Girls' School is full. To materially increase the number of scholars would require an enlargement of our plant. The number of secular students in the Tohoku Gakuin has slightly decreased, but the number of candidates for the ministry continues full, while sending out a yearly class of graduates into the field.

In obedience to the directions of General Synod, the Board is taking steps for the planting of a new mission in China or some contiguous country. Inquiries are now being made for the accomplishment of this task. The church is ripe for this forward step, and while the Board will endeavor to move cautiously, it will seek to hasten its steps as prudence and facilities may permit. This step, as will at once appear, will necessitate an enlarged liberality throughout the church, for which, no doubt, it holds itself in readiness.

As ministering to this end, we beg to call attention to the importance of pious legacies. There are many good members in our church whose business relations restrain them from liberal gifts during life, who could well devise a portion of their estate to the Lord by will. To such persons we solemnly commend the thought. In making bequests, be particular to use our full corporate title: "The Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions of the Reformed in the United States."

In taking revenge a man is but even with his enemy; but in passing it over, he is superior.

PROF. WM. CURTIS MAINS, A. M., PH. D.

ROF. WILLIAM CURTIS MAINS, A. M., PH. D., of Ursinus College, was born in the State of New York in 1871. After studying at the Adelphi Academy of Brooklyn, he entered in 1888 the New York University, under whose instructors he remained for five years, the last as a graduate student in the department of English. In 1891 he secured the first of the Butler prizes for excellence in English Composition, and was honored by an election to the honorary Greek letter fraternity of Phi Beta Kappa. In 1892, the year of his graduation from the University College he again won the first prize for English Composition, and at the same time the second commencement honor, securing the possession of the Butler Classical Fellowship valued at three hundred dollars. The degree of A. B. was given him by his alma mater in 1892, and that of A. M. in 1894. In 1893 he was elected to the Chair of History and Political Science in the University of Denver, Col., which position he filled acceptably for one year. From the time of his leaving Denver until his election to the Chair he now holds in Ursinus College, Professor Mains was a student in Germany, and identified with the Universities of Halle and Berlin, from the former of which he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, cum laude, in July, 1896.

The recent additions to the Faculty of Ursinus College are men of whom it may be said collectively that they are alive to modern methods and have been trained under the best masters. Professor Mains, although but recently entered upon his work gives evidence that the standards of the college are to be strictly maintained in his department. He has offered new courses in History and Economics, and further development of the work of his Chair will be indicated in the announcements of the next annual catalogue. Professor Mains is a man of affairs; his platform personality is pleasing; as a writer he commands an agreeable style and excels in clear statement.

The Japan Mission of the Reformed Church in the United States.

The Reformed Church has now eleven missionaries in Japan: Rev. J. P. Moore and wife, Rev. W. E. Hoy and wife, Rev. H. K. Miller, Rev. S. S. Snyder and wife, Rev. C. Noss and wife, Miss Mary C. Hollowell, Miss Lena Zurfluh, and Rev. D. B. Schneder and wife, now in America on furlough. There are also nine children, who also help the work by cheering the homes in which they are.

The whole number of converts in connection with the work of the mission is 1935. The number of places at which there is regular preaching is thirty-nine. The whole number of converts added during the year ending with March 31, 1896, is 197.

The Girls' School has fifty-seven pupils enrolled, thirty are Christians. The girls are very active in Sunday-school work as well as in other good enterprises.

The Tohoku Gakuin has 154 students. Twenty-three of these are in the Theological Seminary. There are eighty Christians. Ninety-four are in the Industrial Home. The inmates of the Home earn about two-thirds of their living by working three hours per day in addition to their studies. Their lines of work are peddling oil, beef, and a Japanese sauce, carrying milk and newspapers, washing and ironing, etc. They stand well in their classes.

CLARENCE ARTHUR SAUNDERS, A. M., PH. D.,

Professor of Mathematics, Physics and Astronomy in Ursinus College.

LARENCE ARTHUR SAUNDERS, A. M., PH. D., was born at Florenceville, N. B., - July 26, 1863. He attended the high school in his native town for some time and then entered the Collegiate School at Windsor, N. S., where he remained one year, and finished his preparation for college. In 1881, he entered King's College at Windsor and during the first year won the Almon-Welsford prize, given to first year students making the greatest number of marks. In his second year he won, in competitive examination, the Stephenson scholarship of No. 120 to be held for two years. In his third year he won the McCawley classical and in his fourth year the McCawley Hebrew scholarship. He was graduated from King's College with the degree of A. B. in 1885 and in 1888 received his degree of A. M. from the same institute. His object thus far was to obtain a good English and classical education, but impelled by a desire for a more thorough and exhaustive study of physics and mathematics toward which his mind was naturally inclined he entered Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md., in the year 1889, and continued his studies there two years, taking the minor and major, and also the advanced courses in physics, the major courses in mathematics and the major course in Chemistry. In 1891 he was appointed assistant to Prof. Langley in the Astro-Physical Laboratory connected with the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, D. C., where he remained until 1892 when he was appointed Junior Fellow in Physics at Clark University, Worcester, Mass., and Senior Fellow the two succeeding years 1893-5. He received his Doctor of Philosophy degree from Clark University in 1895, the subject of his thesis being, "The Velocity of Electric Waves." The thesis was published by the McMillans of New York, in the September number, 1896, of the Physical Review. He was elected Professor of Physics and Mathematics in Ursinus College in October, 1895, and at once entered upon his duties in that institution. Under the care and direction of Dr. Saunders the physical laboratory has been thoroughly equipped and advanced courses have been added to both the physical and mathematical departments, thereby making them second to none offered by any of our colleges. Dr. Saunders' work at Ursinus has been entirely successful, which is attested by the fact that he has received several flattering offers from other places since he entered upon his work at Ursinus College.

The Synod of Ohio.

The Synod of Ohio has quite an interesting history, as many changes have been brought about since the Reformed Church was first planted in Ohio soil. The events which make this history important should be more fully known. There was a time in the history of the Reformed Church when Ohio was looked upon as the far West. That was before the building of railroads when it took our early settlers from four to six and eight weeks to make a trip from Eastern Pennsylvania to Central Ohio. That was during the time when the great state of Ohio was yet a wilderness and a dense forest, when Indians and wild animals still filled the woods with their hideous yells and screams until the white man feared to leave his humble log cabin. It was a time when these fertile valleys were still the play-ground of all that was unwelcome to the pioneer in his efforts to make a start in the world. But Ohio was so far away from civilization that atrocious crimes could be

REV. J. P. STEIN.

NO. PHIL. STEIN is a descendant of Reformed ancestry, springing from a family that located in Annville, Lebanon county, Pa. His preliminary classical training was received in the Annville Academy. He was a catechumen among a class of ninety in the first year of Dr. F. W. Kremer's ministry in the First Church, Lebanon. He was graduated in 1861, after taking a full course at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa. He completed two years of his theological course at the seminary at Mercersburg, Pa., and the third year in 1864 at the Union Theological Seminary, New York. After the death of Dr. S. R. Fisher, stated clerk of Eastern Synod, who died at the General Synod at Tiffin in 1881, he was chosen in the same year at the Synod at Danville to fill the vacancy and continues to hold the position of stated clerk of the Eastern Synod to the present time. At the recent sessions of the General Synod at Dayton, he was elected to the clerkship of this body which was made vacant by the death of the highly esteemed Dr. Isaac H. Reiter.

He has been pastor successively of St. John's Reformed Church, Schuylkill Haven, Pa., Trinity Church, Pottsville, Pa., St. John's Church, West Philadelphia, Zion's Reformed Church, Millersville, Pa. He is at present the pastor of St. Thomas Reformed Church, Reading, Pa.

committed and no one to come to their relief. So as years passed on and Ohio became a more populous state our church was established. It is claimed very justly we believe that the Rev. Jacob Christman was the first Reformed minister in Ohio and that he preached in Warren county, Ohio, in 1803. In the following year (1804) that truly apostolic man, the Rev. John Jacob Larose, entered upon the field, and for many years his extensive missionary journeys were a source of comfort to hundreds of isolated members of the church. In 1812 the synod resolved "to send certain ministers into the western country, to visit the members of our church residing there," and "that a collection be taken up in each congregation for their support." The ministers appointed to this service were William Hendel, Jr., and J. W. Dechant. Hendel was subsequently excused, but Dechant began his labors in Ohio in 1816. Gradually the number of ministers increased, and in 1819, when the Synod of the United States was divided into classes, it was possible to form a Classis of Ohio: The classis was formally organized at Lancaster, O., on the 1st of May, 1820, and at that time included five ministers, fifty congregations, and about eighteen hundred communicants. Four years later this classis, at its meeting in New Philadelphia, O., on the 14th of June, 1824, resolved itself into a synod, under the title of "The German Evangelical Reformed Synod of Ohio." On this occasion but eight ministers were present, and as the number was so small; we may as well enumerate them. Their names were J. P. Mahnenschmidt, Thomas Winters, George Weiss, Benjamin Faust, Henry Sonnedecker, Daniel Rahauser, Daniel Shearer, and William Reiter. John Jacob Larose and Simon Riegel are noted as absent, and John Peter Dechant as having died within the year. David Winters, J. Descombes, and John Pence, were admitted to membership at the same meeting. These ministers may be regarded as the pioneers of the Synod of Ohio.

The occasion which induced the division from the parent synod was almost identical with that which had originally caused the separation of the latter from the church of Holland. In both cases the superior body regarded the ordination of ministers as its special prerogative, and declined to grant this privilege to a subordinate organization. In 1823 the Classis of Northampton applied to the Synod of the United States for permission to examine a candidate (Mr. Philip Zeiser), and "if found qualified to ordain him to the gospel ministry." The synod, however. declined to grant the request, and officially declared that "no candidate shall in future be examined and ordained except by synod." As might have been expected, the members of the Classis of Ohio, who were farthest distant from the center of the church, felt aggrieved by this decision. It was impracticable, they declared in their published protest, to require candidates for the ministry to undertake a long and expensive journey for the purpose of receiving ordination from the hands of the synod. "The money expended in traveling over the mountains," they said, "might be applied to much better advantage in building up the church at home."

As there seemed to be little hope that the synod would rescind its action, the only course which suggested itself to the Classis of Ohio was to declare its independence, and to assume the privilege to which it believed itself justly entitled. There was but little personal feeling involved in this action; it was the cutting of a knot which the classis found itself unable to untie. The course taken was irregular, but it may be regarded as to some extent warranted by urgent necessity.

For some years after the separation there was, it is true, a certain coldness between the two synods, and they had but little direct communication; but each regarded the other as belonging to the same church, and ministers were dismissed from one to the other without hesitation. The Synod of the United States, having in the meangranted to its classes the privilege of performing the rite of ordination, several times invited the Synod of Ohio to resume its former classical relations; but the latter felt that it had a special mission, and was naturally unwilling to occupy a subordinate position. In 1837 the Classis of West Pennsylvania, which had hitherto belonged to the Synod of the United States, became connected with the Synod of Ohio, and the latter thus became a much stronger and more efficient body. Its territory had, however, become greatly enlarged, and the difficulty of convening its members was accordingly increased. The charges were widely scattered, and the ministers who resided on the frontiers often endured great dangers and privations on their way to the place of meeting. With a view of decreasing these difficulties, and of promoting the efficiency of its practical operations, the Ohio Synod, during its annual sessions at Lancaster, Ohio, in June 1839, divided its territory into three District Synods which were to meet annually, and constituted itself a General Synod, to meet every third year.

This arrangement, it seems, did not prove satisfactory, and three years later it was abandoned. In that year (1842) the Triennial General Synod of Ohio convened at Canton, and proved a very important assembly. It entered largely into the work of reconstruction and readjustment, and

In May 1875, he graduated at the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., and in the same month was ordained to the ministry. He at once assumed the pastorate of the Greenfield charge, consisting of four congregations, two in Blair and two in Bedford county, Pa. Resigned to take the presidency of Juniata Collegiate Institute. On Sept. 20, 1877, became pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, Berlin, Pa., serving it until May, 1885. From May 1885 to Feb. 22, 1887, he served as pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, at Bloomsburg, Pa. Pastor of the Church of the Ascension, Norristown, Pa., February 22, 1887, until May 1, 1892, when he entered upon the duties of his present pastorate in the Second Reformed Church, Reading, Pa. A largely increased membership, the purchase of a new parsonage and the erection of a new church edifice at a cost of $37,000 attest the prosperous condition of the work in his present charge. In June 1896, the title of D. D. was conferred upon him by Franklin and Marshall College.

exerted an important influence on the general life of the church. A plan of co-operation with the Synod of the United States by the interchange of delegates was adopted, and, in place of its own, it adopted the Constitution of the latter body. This system of correspondence was continued until the organization of the present General Synod rendered it no longer necessary.

The fathers, as foreshadowed in the parochial reports, as well as in the synodical records, were not only "churchly," but faithful to the customs of the church, to the practice of catechisation, and to the proper use of the means of grace. The ordinances of divine appointment were valued and observed. In 1830, with the view of giving due prominence and significance to the Divine Ordinances, the synod made it the duty of every minister to make proper account of the worship of the sanctuary and to administer the Lord's Supper at least twice in each year in all the congregations. And from the reports of baptisms, it is evident that this ordinance was generally observed.

"It also appears from the official record, that due regard was had for the leading Church Festivals, such as Christmas, Good Friday, Easter, and Pentecost; and, in 1837, it was resolved 'that Good Friday be observed throughout the church as a day of prayer.' This evinces a spirit of true devotion and consecration, as well as churchliness."

THE WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

As early as 1834 the Synod of Ohio had officially declared that it entertained "the exalted intention of establishing an institution for the education of worthy young men for the gospel ministry, that the vacant places of the West may be filled with the Word and Gospel of Life." Years passed before this laudable purpose could be consummated. In 1838 there was an attempt to establish a Theological Seminary at Canton, O. The Rev. J. G. Buettner, Ph. D., a well educated German, had become pastor of several congregations in the vicinity of the latter place, and it occurred to the synod to employ his services in the instruction of candidates for the ministry. He was accordingly elected Professor of Theology, and an annual stipend of $250 was promised him for his educational work

The Peace Commission.

(Frontispiece).

T the time of the organization of the General Synod in 1863, as well as before and afterwards our church was more or less disturbed on account of the question of liturgy and ritualism. The feeling of unrest, dissatisfaction and distrust seemed to grow, until what is known throughout the church as the Peace Commission, was appointed, and entered upon its work.

The origin thereof falls in the year 1878. At the meeting of General Synod in Lancaster, Pa. In this year on Monday evening, May 20th, Rev. Clement Z. Weiser, D. D., submitted a paper, which was discussed and unanimously adopted. This paper called for "a Commission" to "be created by the several District Synods, consisting of a representation from the six several district synods [two have been organized since then] which Commission proportionately representing the true tendencies in the church, shall consider and solemnly deliberate over all matters in controversy within the church, with a view of devising a plan of amicable adjustment, to be reported to the next General Synod."

"The basis of representation in this Commission" was fixed by the same synod and immediately after the adoption of these measures "the synod amid manifest solemnity, united in special prayer, singing a doxology and the Lord's Prayer." (See Minutes, pages 74-79.)

In their subsequent meetings the several District Synods elected their representatives in this commission, their names being given below the cut in the frontispiece.

The commission met on the 26th of November, 1879, in the lecture room of the Salem Reformed Church in Harrisburg, Pa., the president of General Synod, Rev. David Van Horne, D. D., conducting the opening exercises and presiding during the permanent organization, as directed to do by the General Synod. The Commission continued in session here until December 3, 1879, and closed its meeting with the celebration of the Lord's Supper, this service being a very impressive one.

The Commission was in session eight days and discussed the matters referred to it and the points of difference, and everything that the Commission did, was done harmoniously and nothing was adopted until it could be done so unanimously.

Their report was subsequently submitted to the General Synod at Tiffin, O., in 1881. Limited space will not permit us to publish the report here. (See Minutes of above Synod, pages 102–108.) "The report was unanimously adopted by a rising vote, and immediately after the adoption, the synod, with mingled feelings of solemnity and joy, united in singing the doxology and united in special prayer."

By the same synod the members of the Peace Commission were constituted a committee to prepare a Liturgy or Directory of Worship and to report to the next General Synod. This was done, the matter involving a great deal of work on the part of the committee. The report of the committee, namely the Directory of Worship was submitted to the General Synod in session in Baltimore, Md., in 1884. The report of the Liturgical Commission was adopted, the Directory of Worship prepared by them approved and the work was referred to the classes for approval or rejection. And a committee of five was appointed "to take charge of the publication of all future editions of the Directory." (Minutes of Synod, pages 78-82. B. S. S.

Sunshine.

The sunshine is a glorious thing That comes alike to all, Lighting the peasant's lowly cot, The noble's painted hall.

The music of the birds is heard, Borne on the passing breeze, As sweetly from the hedgerows as From old ancestral trees.

There are as many lovely things, As many pleasant tones, For those who dwell by cottage hearths As those who sit on thrones.

-Mrs. Hawkesworth.

He was licensed the same year by Philadelphia Classis and dismissed to St. Paul's Classis, where he was ordained, also in 1866, to the ministry, and installed as pastor over the Shenango Charge consisting of five congregations in Mercer County. He resigned that charge to become pastor of the Columbia congregation and was received by Lancaster Classis October 8, 1868. In consequence of his resignation of the Columbia congregation Lancaster Classis dismissed him November 21, 1872, to St. Paul's Classis, where he became for the second time the pastor of the Shenango Charge, now consisting of four congregations, and continued in that position for a period of fitteen years. REV. HENRY BAIR was born at Bucyrus, Crawford County, Ohio, April 1, 1837. Died July 16, 1896, aged 59 years, 3 months and 15 days. In his youth he attended the High School at Bucyrus. In 1856, when about nine-teen years old, he entered Heidelberg College, spending six years in college and seminary. He was licensed to preach the gospel in 1862. He first located at Fort Seneca, Seneca County, Ohio, where he labored about eighteen months. He resigned this charge in 1864. Having a desire to work in a home mission field, he moved into the Elkhart Mission, state of Indiana, afterward known as the Millersburg Charge. After six years of hard labor, he resigned in 1870. He then received a call to the Union Charge, Waterloo, Indiana. Was compelled to resign on account of failing health in 1874. In 1875, his health having improved, he again sought a field, and soon received a call from the Pine Run Charge, Westmoreland County, Pa. Here he labored three and one-half years; resigned in 1879; moved to Steuben County, Indiana, where he supplied two congregations six months. But an affection of the throat compelled him to cease preaching, so he moved to Buena Vista County, Iowa, on a farm. He remained here eighteen months. In the fall of 1881 he attended synod at Cedarville, Illinois, and while there was urged to take charge of the Liscomb Mission in Grundy and Marshall Counties, Iowa. He accepted, and labored in this mission six years. In 1887 he resigned and accepted a call from the Forreston Charge, Ogle County, Illinois. Here he labored six years, when failing health compelled him to resign. This was about three years before his death. In 1861 Rev. H. Bair was married to Miss Magdalene Troxel, of Seneca County, Ohio, who survives him to mourn her loss. May He who styles Himself the Husband of the widow comfort her in her loneliness. The remains of our brother were taken to Bucyrus, Ohio, and there laid to rest.

REV. CARL SCHAAF, D. D., was born June 27, 1841, in Ober Gleen, Province of Hesse, Germany, and died September 11, 1896, at Norwood, O., aged 55 years, 5 months and 14 days. He was the son of respected Christian parents. His mother died when he was a mere boy, and when seventeen years old he made his home with his sister in Indianapolis, Ind. Here he united with the Reformed Church, Rev. M. G. I. Stern being pastor. He went to Tiffin, O., in 1859, graduating from college in 1864 and from the seminary in 1866. His first charge was Kenton, O. After three years he went to Sandusky, O., from 1868 to 1876. He then accepted a call from the St.

John's Reformed Church, Ft. Wayne, Ind. In the fall of 1894 he resigned, after having done a great and good work, and accepted an appointment to a mission in Norwood, Ohio, a suburban town of Cincinnati. He had just made a beginning of his work in this church when he was called to the higher assembly. He was very closely identified with the Orphans' Home while in Fort Wayne, and with his congregation assisted very much in its founding and support. He was married in 1867 to Miss Anna Marquart. This union was blessed with three sons and two daughters. The eldest son, Charles Schaaf, Jr., is now a member of the senior class in the Theological Seminary at Tiffin, Ohio. The younger sons, Albert and Otto, are still at home. The eldest daughter is Mrs. Rev. Martin G. Hirsh, of Marion, Ind., and the second daughter, Sarah, has for a number of years been a teacher in the city schools of Fort Wayne. February 1, 1889, death came into this home and took the affectionate wife and mother. In 1890 Rev. Schaaf was again united in marriage with Miss Frieda Haeger. This union was blessed with one daughter, little Clara. The wife and all the children survive to mourn the loss of the husband and father.

The building in the accompanying picture represents our present quarters which we have occupied since August 1884. Here we have about 8,000 square feet floor surface, including basement. Machinery and material have been added from time to time to keep pace with the demands for our work crowding us so that we are compelled to seek more commodious quarters. We have earned a reputation by turning out the best work, using the best material, and by promptness in execution.
